

Labyrinth Prayer for Global Relief to Earthquake Victims in Japan

*By Kay Muturt
March, 2011*

For our sisters and brothers of Japan
In the midst of devastation, turmoil and loss
A land torn apart, broken by the earth, swept by the speeding waves

When words fail,
When loss is beyond comprehension

May we walk...
May we walk in silence
In love
In humble care
That hope be born Healing begin
Heart be shared

In days of fear and uncertainty
Disaster lingering and haunting
As the clouds of turmoil hover near,

May this world respond,
May no step be not taken
No grief be unknown

May we walk
that this broken world be encircled in care

May our hearts not forget our sisters and brothers of the earth May we be one.
